(a) whether the popularity and quality of Doordarshan and AIR is declining day by day as compared to private channels despite the fact that 90 per cent of population has access to the National Channels;

(b) whether the decline in popularity of Doordarshan and AIR is attributed to the declining of quality of programmes; and

(c) if so, the concrete steps taken by Government to make Doordarshan and AIR popular once again?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI S. JAIPAL REDDY): (a) to (c) Prasar Bharati has informed that in order to fulfil the mandate of the Public Service Broadcaster to inform, educate and entertain the public, Prasar Bharati has been constantly aiming for excellence both in terms of content and quality. Doordarshan constantly reviews the quality of serials/programmes telecast on its various channels and makes efforts to further improve the contents and technical quality/ transmission. The studios and equipment are continuously being modernized to improve technical quality of programmes.

The continuous increase in the number of Private Channels and introduction of FM Radio in private sector have cut into the popularity of DD &AIR. This unavoidable consequence cannot simplistically be attributed to decline in the quality of programmes.
